Living Virtue Means Accepting Life as Struggle

Overcoming downsides and broadsides —

When we give up virtue for flack
it's hard to get reputation back.
The quick snatch, may become a faulty catch at others ill expense.
Pussy footing with no restraint
may turn us into dozy flussies with a taint.
Tyrants have no clout because they bottom out.
Avoid the pain of self distain by viability and credibility to know the nobility of sustainability.

Flim flam thank you mam
discredits the person that I am.
Haste is waste. It's a mistake to just take.
Better to be chaste.
The spiller for a thriller
can turn into a dilly of dither.
Willy-nilly turns chilly from puting
the blue boo hoo in the stew.
Messes made are hard to live down
because we loose ground.

To debase causes a disgrace that no one should face.
The catty caper is no keepsake, too often heartbreak,
the quick take is too often the big mistake.
Willow the whisk is too great a risk.
Start afresh, back to basics, that's what sticks.
Back track the flack
no ticky tacky- flakey half bakey life gone whacky.

Willy Nilly can turn life silly
Dilly dally becomes blind alley
if it doesn't tally.
Fear of failure is a bum steer
that puts us out of gear.
Don't bust self trust!

To pillage and ransack
will turn havoc into a set back and draw back.
To disparage does carnage, to debase lays waste.
Crappy is not happy!

Distain causes pain. Fault finding is blinding.
Let's not proffer the scoffer. Deter the slight or slur.
Muss making is liberty forsaking by muckraking.
To defile is to anile.

Dishonesty becomes the con-game gone wrong; i.e. jeepers creepers, finders keepers, losers weepers. Causing pensive poverty can become paltry usury, causing us to be miffed adrift. The "brew haha" is not a laughing matter. Safety can be made tenuous by the thrill seeker. A cheap shot puts us all on the spot.

Distracted driving, impacts surviving. Don't let others down by deserving the impound. Don't go adrift when miffed.
Self congratulatory cunning is unbecoming.
Be cautious and hesitant to avoid being misspent and calcitrant.
Be generous not pompous. To be miserly begets misery.
Don't chafe be safe.

Be clean not obscene.
A falsehood causes us to be misunderstood. Deceit is best withstood.
Supplicate to purity to avoid heartbreak.
Howdie rowdie is dowdie.
Be watchful not wasteful.
